TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

9 am Readers: Sept. 10th: Bill Lynn

Sept. 17th: Sharon Heidlage

According to Canon Law, Can. 905 §2, only if there is a shortage of priests and for a just cause could a local Bishop give permission to a priest to offer Mass twice in a day. It also states that a priest could offer a Mass three times on Sundays or Holy Days if pastoral necessity required it. As neither Mass has been full to capacity every Sunday for years, it seems that the 5PM Mass was a carryover from decades ago when we used to have a much larger community and therefore, a pastoral necessity for an additional Mass. Additionally, four Masses over a 24-hour period often required at least two priests to substitute when needed. After considering the law, and the logistical complications. Fr. Donovan consulted with Bishop Konderla and the Bishop recommended to not restart the 5PM Mass until there was a need for it.
