The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Corpus Christi is first an opportunity to deepen our "eucharistic amazement" and express our faith that the Eucharist is not bread and wine but Christ himself. In this awe-inspiring gift, the Son of God, who humbled himself to take our humanity, humbles himself so much more, cloaking his humanity and divinity under the appearances of food and drink so that we might consume him and become one-flesh with him in spousal love. Through this union, we participate in his passion, death and resurrection and are brought into communion with God and with each other. Because the Eucharist is Jesus Christ, and because Jesus wills to do so much for us through this supreme sacrament, the fathers of the Second Vatican Council couldn't help but declare that the Eucharist is the "source and the summit of the Christian life," the starting point and goal of any life that is truly Christian.
